

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

Sociology Honors requires a total of 60 credits (58 credits if a 3-credit course is included). Honors starts in autumn quarter and runs for one academic year.

HONORS REQUIREMENTS CHECKLIST AS OF AUT 2022
	COURSE	QTR/YR
A. INTRODUCTORY COURSEWORK (10 CREDITS) Any 5 credit course in Sociology and completion of or current enrollment in SOC 300.
	SOC 300
B. SOCIOLOGICAL METHODS AND THEORY (10 CREDITS) (STAT 220 or STAT 290 may be used instead of SOC 221) We recommend completion of these courses before students take upper division courses.	SOC 221
	SOC 316
C. TWO-QUARTER HONORS SEMINAR (10 CREDITS)	SOC 496	AUT
	SOC 497	WIN
D. HONORS THESIS (5 CREDITS, or fewer if needed)	SOC 498	SPR
E. GRADUATE OR 400 LEVEL W SEMINAR OR ADVANCED STATISTICS COURSE (3-5 CREDITS)
F. ADDITIONAL SOCIOLOGY ELECTIVES (20 CREDITS) 20 credits of additional SOC courses, at least 10 of which must be 300 level or above.

To graduate with Honors in Sociology, students must complete the above courses, have a cumulative GPA of 3.50 or higher in all UW Sociology courses and any other courses included in the Honors major. A UW GPA of at least 3.30. They must also successfully complete the Honors Thesis.

Where Honors requirements do not meet or exceed standard degree requirements for the BA in Sociology, Honors students must meet the standard BA requirements. If students do not complete all Honors requirements, Honors coursework will count as upper division credit toward standard BA course requirements.